

Job Description

This position is located in Murfreesboro, TN

This is a third shift position

Operates and tends stamping presses or manufacturing cells while manufacturing quality parts.

Operation involves knowledge of press controls, nomenclature, procedures and documents and the ability to operate press at established rates without compromising safety, product quality or equipment.

Required to check finished parts and shutdown operation whenever deficiencies in quality or press operation are noted.

Uses precision measuring instruments (caliper, micrometer, plug gauges, bore micrometer, dial indicator height gauge, etc) to ensure that parts meet customer specifications.

Maintain cleanliness in and around machines and work area.

Load and unload raw material from stock reel or palletizer, following safety guidelines.

Requires the safe & effective use of forklift, overhead hoist, coil hook, stock reel, coil straightener and banding apparatus.

Required to read and interpret part prints and understand the correlation between the print and critical dimensions upon which SPC charts are based.

Records production, material, and quality information on designated operating systems and in accordance with operating procedures.

Responsible for performing basic preventive maintenance.

Other duties as assigned by supervisor for additional experience and/or training or refinement skills or in preparation for advancement.

Occupations includes a requirement to follow all Environmental Health and Safety Procedures.

WORKING CONDITIONS:

Oil, coolant and noise present. Hearing protection is required.

Technician is subject to frequent lifting up to 50 Lbs.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:

EDUCATION: Math, mechanical and reading competency. Mechanical ability a plus.

EXPERIENCE: Demonstrated successful performance in a technical manufacturing field.

Job Type: Full-time